

12) EVERYTHING IS GONNA BE ALRIGHT

You woke up late this morning (oh no)
No hot water for your shower (oh no)
Well everything is gonna be alright
Almost choked on your cereal (oh no)
Wrinkles in your clothes (oh no)
Well everything is gonna be alright
Well everything is gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright now
Your car wouldn't start (oh no)
Engine oil everywhere (oh no)
Well everything is gonna be alright
You had to walk to work
Sprained your ankle 'long the way (oh no)
Well everything is gonna be alright
Well everything is gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright now
When you finally get to work you notice
The picture of your lover
And you realize that the bad little things
Fade away one way or another
You get home from work (oh yea)
Hug your lover like no other (oh yea)
Well everything is gonna be alright
Well everything is gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright now
Hit me with some guitar)
(solo)
Repeat after me, I said
Everything is gonna be alright
(everything is gonna be alright)
Everything is gonna be alright
(everything is gonna be alright)

Everything is gonna be alright
(everything is gonna be alright)
Everything is gonna be alright
(everything is gonna be alright)
It's gonna be alright now
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright now
It's gonna be alright, alright, alright.....
