

02) STUFF LIKE THAT

For you I will not climb any mountain, swim all the seas
Won't purposely get a tropical disease
But I'll hold your purse, and stuff like that
Because I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that

I won't try to stop a train with my bare hands
Walk across the desert or fight Superman
But I'll go to a chick flick, and stuff like that
Because I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that
(Hey x's 5)

I'm tired of hearing guys saying crazy things they'd do, to prove their love to women who only want them true
Stupidity and chivalry aren't even close
So shut up, shut up and do the things they love the most, hey!

I'll pull out the chair for you, open your door
Exercise my body, sweat more and more
'cause I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that

Take dance classes, share the remote
Listen to you gossip, hug you while you emote
'cause I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that

Get along with your family, go to the mall
Watch what I eat, and answer my phone when you call
'cause I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that

Hang frilly curtains, go on a double date
Plant pretty flowers and never come home late
'cause I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that
Because I love you I love you I love you
I'll do stuff like that.....

(I almost hurt myself on the last note!)
